Count 3: Aggravated Identity Theft 18 U.S.C. §1028A(a)(1)

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons on Count Two of the Indictment for a term of twenty-four (24) months and one (1) day. This term consists of one day on Count Two, and 24 months on Count Three, to be served consecutively, and both counts to run concurrently to any undischarged term of imprisonment in Los Angeles County Superior Court Case No. SA096505. The court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of defendant and provide all necessary treatment. It is further recommended that defendant be designated to Dublin Federal Correctional Institution.

Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one (1) year. This term consists of one year on Count Two, and one year on Count Three, such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 18-10.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.

4. Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
6. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
7. Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation & Pretrial Services Office.
9. Defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than defendant's true legal name, nor shall defendant use any name other than her true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
10. Defendant shall submit her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)], other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, office, or other areas under defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that defendant has violated a condition of her supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
11. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.
12. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential treatment program for co-occurring disorders approved by the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office for treatment of mental health disorders and substance abuse or drug dependency, which may include psychiatric services, counseling and substance abuse testing. Defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

It is ordered that defendant shall pay restitution to Capital One Bank in the total amount of $1,942.05 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663A. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, defendant shall make payments of 10% of her gross monthly income, or no less than $100 per month. Payments shall begin 30 days from the commencement of supervision.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. All fines are waived as the court finds defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon motion by the government, the remaining counts are hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
